

Thursday June 23

☞☞ 3:30 PM to 11:30 PM — Arrival & Room Check-in at South Campus Plaza for participants who have reserved lodging.

Friday June 24

☞☞ 8:30 AM — Registration doors open, first floor of Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union in Pride Suite (1st floor). Coffee, Tea, Juice, Pastries, Fruit

☞☞ 9:30 AM to 11:30 AM — Opening Plenary Session I. Movement Strategies in the 21st Century. (Templo Mayor (2nd floor)

“Service, Strategy, and Sustainability in the Climate Movement”
Dana Fisher, University of Maryland

“Strategic Challenges in the Environmental Movement”
Suzanne Staggenborg, University of Pittsburgh

“The Dilemmas of Escalation, Tactical and Otherwise”
David S. Meyer, University of California, Irvine

☞☞ 11:45 PM to 1:15:00 PM — Informal Luncheon Paper Sessions:
Pick up boxed lunches at Pride Suite (1st floor) and munch quietly at the session you choose.

Session 1: Global Perspectives (Templo Mayor 2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Iron Fists and Soft Jabs: Comparing the Transnational Repression of Filipino Diaspora Activists under Marcos and Duarte.”

*Sharon Quinsaas, Grinnell College

“Collective and Dispersed Resistance in the Face of Inclusion/Exclusion: The Case of Peace Academics from Turkey

Gaye Onurer, Queens University, Kingston, Ontario

“The Political Economy of Learning in Transnational Alliances: Forging the Struggle for Agrarian Transformation in the US.”

Anthony Pahnke, San Francisco State University

“From Radical Flanks to Radicalized Middles: Protests, Competitive Authoritarianism, and the Contours of Contention in Iran.”

Zep Kalb, University of California, Los Angeles

Session 2: Culture, Discourse, and Meaning Construction (Metzli—2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Monumental Struggles: The Contentious Dynamics of Commemoration in Montgomery”

*David Cunningham, Washington University St. Louis

“Commemorative Cooptation: Rhetorical Usage of Martin Luther King, Jr. through the American Presidency 1968 to 2020”

Davyd Setter, University of New Mexico

“Double-Sided Nationalism in Antiglobalization Protest”.

Kyu Young Lee, Prairie View A&M University

“Constructing Motherhood in the Gun Debate”

Kaylin Bourdon, University of California Irvine

Session 3: Mobilization Processes (Mata’yuum—2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“The Constructive Dimensions of Social Movements”

*Laura Hanson Schlacter, University of Wisconsin, Madison

“Making a Virtue of Necessity? Resisting Definition in a Solidarity Movement Weathering State Repression.”

Audrey Augenbraum, University of

“Bureaucrats with Guns, or How We Can Abolish the Police if We Just Stop Believing in Them”

Andrew Johnson, Seattle University

“The Origins of Social Movements Revisited”

Mathis Ebbinghaus, Oxford University

Session 4: Activist Identities (Atzlan—2nd floor) *denotes facilitator

“Collective Action by Unradicalized Youth in Japan: Refusing and Reconstructing Activist Identity”

“Digital Traces of Collective Identities: The Case of the Yellow Vests in South-East France”

Davide Morselli, Maite Beramendi, Zakaria Bendali, and Olivier Filleule, University of Lausanne

“Paradoxical Politics? White Backlash, Colorblindness, and the Articulations of Latinx Republicans”

Roger Cadena, University of Notre Dame

“An Investigation of South Asian American Cross-Racial Solidarity Movements”

*Naomi Joseph, University of California, Santa Barbara

☞ Friday, June 24, 1:30 PM to 3:00 PM — Paper Sessions:

Session 1. Global Perspectives (Templo Mayor 2nd floor) *denotes facilitator

“African Repertoires: How Traditional and Cultural Dynamics Shape Movements and Protest Patterns in Nigeria and Cameroon”

Eliana Fonsah University of California Merced

“Transnational Activism in the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict”

*Suzanne Morrison, Zayed University, Abu Dhabi

“The Unity Indifada: Tipping-Point Pillarization as Strategy for Activism and Resistance in Palestine”

Anne de Jong, University of Amsterdam

“An Outcome Study on Policy Change: Trajectory of the 2013 Anticorruption Mass Protest in Philippines.”

Eishi Senaha, University of Kyoto, Japan

Session 2: Recruitment Participation and Nonparticipation (Mata'yuum—2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Barriers to Participation in Campus Protests”

*Burrel Vann,

“

Andrew Messamore, University of Texas at Austin

“How Movement Practices Overcome Barriers to Participation: A Mixed Methods Study of Political Passivity and Mobilization Tactics in Japan.”

Kanoto Kamata, University of Pittsburgh

“We Have to Stop the Silence and Speak Out: US Children Own their Incomplete Participation in the Parkland Shooting”

Roberto Salva, Brandeis University

Session 3: Gendered and Intersectional Activism (Metzli—2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Empowerment without Intersectionality: Women’s Organizations in India and Intersectional Approach to Grassroots Organizing”

*Soma Chaudhuri

“The Feminista Encapuchada: Gender Justice and Affective (De)attachments in the Chilean High-School Feminist Movement”

Valentina Errázuriz Besa,

“We are the Despicable Women: Gendered Reformulations of Leadership in the Gilets Jaunes Movement.”

Eli Melby, University of Bergen, Norway

“Born Again Activists: Elite Women’s Mobilization during Tunisia’s Democratic Revolution

Maro Youssef, University Southern California

Session 4: Movements in Latin America (Atzlan—2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Seeking Justice in the Catholic Church of Ecuador: Strategies of Sexual Assault Survivors and Activists.”

Caroline Martinez, University of California, Irvine

“Radical Protest, Authoritarianism, and Global Capitalism: Political Process of the Salvadoran Labor Movement, 12974-1981.”

Luis Ruben Gonzalez Marquez, University of California, Merced

“What Are They Tweeting About? Online Claim Making Structure of the 2021 Colombian Protests”

Sergio Giraldo, Universidad de los Andes, Bogota

“Ultimate Consequences: A Database on Lethal Political Conflict in Democratic Bolivia.”

*Carwil Bjork-James, Vanderbilt University

☞☞ 3:00 PM to 3:30 PM — Coffee, Tea, Dessert (Pride Suite 1st floor)

☞☞ Friday, June 24, 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM — Plenary Session II. The Contemporary Media Environment (Templo Mayor 2nd floor)

“Lopsided Politics, Unbalanced Media, and US Movements Today”?

Neal Caren, University of North Carolina

“Digital Technologies and the Right’s Assault on Democracy”

Deana Rohlinger, Florida State University

“Protest and Politization in the Hybrid Media Arena”

Ruud Wouters and Evelien Willems, University of Antwerp

Friday, June 24, 5:30 PM — Reception at Scripps Cottage Patio. See p. 13 map

Saturday, June 25

☞☞ 9:00 AM — Registration doors open at Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union in Pride Suite (1st floor). Coffee, Tea, Juice, Pastries, Fruit

☞☞ 9:30 AM to 11:30 AM — Morning REPs — Really Engaging Panels (REPs)

Session 1: Racial Justice and BLM. (Templo Mayor 2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“New Data on Black Protests in the 1990s and 2000s”

*Pamela Oliver, University of Wisconsin, Madison

“The Cultural Consequences of Black Lives Matter”

Rune Ellefsen and Jan Jamte, University of Oslo

“When Black Movements Matter: Racialized Moral Boundaries and Protests in Newspaper Attention in Police Killings

Todd Lu, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

“Resistance to Racism in K-12 Social Studies Textbooks”

Jamaya Robinson, University of Notre Dame

Session 2: Conceptualizing Contentious Politics. (Mata’yuum—2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Scrolling Protest Features: the dWUNCness of Online Protest Messages.”

Luna Staes and Ruud Wouters, University of Antwerp

“From Boots to Bytes: Explaining Cross-National Variation in Digital Repression 2001-2021”.

Thomas V. Maher, Clemson University and Jennifer Earl, University of Arizona

“Collective Action Domains and the Modern Pre-history of the Pro-Immigrant Social Movement.”

*Kim Voss, Steven Lauterwasser, and Irene Bloemraad, University of California, Berkeley

☞☞ 11:45 PM to 1:15 PM — Informal Luncheon Paper Sessions:

Pick up boxed lunches at Pride Suite (1st floor) and munch quietly at the session you choose.

Session 1: Mobilization Processes: Emotions and Recruitment (Metzli—2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Gun Violence: Emotional Reactions and a Willingness to Mobilize.”

Natalie Bourman-Karns, University of Notre Dame

“Eventfulness: Mobilization, Repression, Grief, and Shared Time”

*Lesley Wood, York University, Toronto

“When Grassroots Mobilization and Moral Entrepreneurs Meet: Oppositions to the Covid 19 Public Policies in Southern France as Moral Panic”

Alenandre Dafflon, University of Lausanne

“Scheler, Gusfield, and Ressentiment in Twenty-First Century America

Hank Johnston, San Diego State University

Session 2: Social Media and Movements (Mata'yuum—2nd floor) *denotes facilitator

“Against Denialism: Social Movements and the Political System during Brazil’s Pandemic”

*Rebecca Neera Abers and Marisa Von Bulow, University of Brasilia,

“Apocalyptic or Integrated? Indignation and Resistance in the Net Society

Cesar Cansino, Benemerita Universidad Autonoma de Puebla

“Media Framing of the 2019-2020 Hong Kong Protests: A Crossnational Comparative Analysis.

Hanning Wang, University of Pittsburgh

“Making Gig Work: How Racial Capitalism Shapes the Production and Consumption of Gig Work in Online Media”

Jaylexia Clark, University of

Session 3: Violence and Nonviolence (Templo Mayor 2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Prison Witness and the Criminal Trial”

Anya Stanger, Syracuse University

“Ethno-Religious Unrest in India: Emergent Phenomena or Evolving Performances?”

David Sorge, University of Pennsylvania

“Riotous Resistance Violence, Nonviolence, and the Dynamics of Disruption”

*Benjamin Case, Arizona State University

“Dissecting Dissent: A Multilevel Integrative Framework on Nonviolent Resistance”

Willemijn Born, Free University of Amsterdam

 Saturday, June 25, 1:30 PM to 3:00 PM — Paper Sessions:

Session 1: Theories of Resistance (Mata'yuum—2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Emerging Repertoires of Decolonizing Resistance”

* Stellan Vinthagen, University of Massachusetts, Sean Chabot, Eastern Washington University

“Systemic Movements, System Change and System Design in 21st Century”

Ben Manski, George Mason University

“The Sudanese Civil Resistance”

Vincent Ofori, University of Aberdeen, Scotland

“Resistance? I’d Rather Not: Marcuse’s Refusal to Understand Prefigurative Praxis.

Andre Sales, Pontifical University of São Paulo, Brasil

Session 2: Climate, Land, and Environmental Activism (Metzli—2nd floor) * denotes facilitator

“Civic Engagement and the Building Blocks of Climate Activism”

*Paul Almeida, University of California, Merced

“Nonmobilization of Quiet Mobilization? Tactics and Trajectories of Rural Environmental Activism”

Max Chewinski University of British Columbia

“Power, Populism, Environment, and Conflict: The Challenges of the Environmental Movement Posed by Right-Wing Populism.”

Pawel Zuk and Anna Paczesniak, University of Wroclaw, Poland

“An Authentic Representative: How Social Movement Organizations Represent Marginalized Communities in Land Use Governance”

Andrew Malmuth, University of California Los Angeles.

Session 3: SMOs: Strategy and Structure (Templo Mayor 2nd floor) * denotes facilitator “Dynamics of Sabotage: Antonio Orendain, Cesar Chavez, and Union Politics in the Rio Grande Valley, 1965 to 1978.

Mario Venegas, Sonoma State University.

“Fishing for Activists: How Community Organizing and Local Recruitment Strategies Shape Civic Groups’ Partisan Tendencies.”

Oded Marom, University of Southern California

“Building Structure Shapes: How Organizational Forms Manage Social Movement Contradictions.”

*Melanie Brazzell, University of California, Santa Barbara

☞ Saturday, June 25, 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM — Plenary Session. Understanding the Rising Right (Templo Mayor 2nd floor)

“It’s Not the Message, It’s the Messenger: Organizational Identity and White Men’s Opposition to Women’s and African Americans’ Civic Participation”

Rory McVeigh, University of Notre Dame

“Democracy in Peril: Understanding Threats to Public Officials”

Peter Simi, Chapman University

“The Status of Status Anxiety”

Ziad Munson, Lehigh University

